No Secretary Report

No Treasurer Report

Introduction of Chris Stichell, CEO of Make A Wish Foundation. Chris thanked the club for their participation in the Make A Wish Weekend. He discussed the host Wish family he worked with this past year. Our donation of $18217.06 will grant three (3) separate wishes this year.

Committee Reports:

Membership reading of new applicants: Michelle Loetz and Robin Sellers. Final membership reading for Patricia Nance and Linda Ivey. Vote was taken and members were accepted into the club.

USDAA:

Jean Eichenlaub has volunteered to Co-chair the January USDAA Test. She would like to have another person volunteer to assist her with this test. Shelly Bakalis will be the Test Secretary for this trial. She will start looking for judges immediately.

Shelly will co-chair the June USDAA Test, but would also like someone to volunteer to help. Shirley Sousa will be the Test Secretary.

April 2007 AKC Trial:

Sally Nesbitt will be the trial chair. She and Bob will design Rohr Park area to hold 3 rings since FAST will be offered at this trial.

NADAC:

Judges, Mark Ewell and Gro Asguard will be the judges for this trial. Michelle Kriz is Hospitality, Kelly Kidwell and Shelly Bakalis are the Chief Ring Stewards.

Old Business:

We still need 2 people for the nominating committee. Slate to be presented at September meeting.

New Business:

Motion was made by Andy Strobridge to pay the entry fees for Rebecca Kriz for the NADAC Nationals in support of representing ACSD as a Junior Handler. Second by Linda Harper.

All in favor, none opposed. Motion carried.

Recommendation of placing ad in the AKC Invitational; USDAA Nationals and NADAC Nationals in support of ACSD members performing in these events. Marla will place article in AA asking for those that have qualified to notify her so that their names may be included in these ads.

Motion made by Linda Harper to adjourn the business part of the meeting so that we could have our program presented by Bob Long on the new AKC game FAST.

Second by Andy Strobridge. Motion passed and meeting was adjourned at 7:35 pm.

Respectfully submitted by,
Shirley Sousa
